Important to Advertisers.

Parties other than those having ledger accounts with this paper, civic societies and military organizations, are required to pay for transient advertisements in advance. An increase of 50 per cent will be charged for transient advertisements not paid for in advance and no transient advertisement will be booked for less space than one inch. To illustrate: one half inch is 25 cents, one inch 50 cents for one time, when paid in advance; but there will be 75 cents if charged. Transient advertisers will save money by remembering this notice, which applies in all cases, irrespective of financial responsibility.

The Daily Press may be obtained every morning at the following places: Crossley Bros., Washington avenue, J. A. Cory, Acme, Chesapeake & Ohio Restaurant, Charles Robinson's No. 7 Ivy avenue, J. N. Lawrence's, 211 Twenty-seventh street.

Advertising rates furnished on application. Contractors are not allowed to exceed their space or advertise other than their legitimate business, except by paying especially for the same. Advertisements discontinued before the expiration of contract will be charged for at transient rates for the time inserted.

Entered at the Postoffice of Newport News, Va., as second-class matter.

FRIDAY, APRIL 23, 1898.

"DAMFOOLISM."

Senator White, of California, is evidently one of those gentlemen who believe that nothing can be so bad but that it might be worse. He can see no reason for the war about to be inaugurated against Spain and croaked all kinds of dismal warnings as to what will happen and what posterity will think of us. He even goes to the extent of coining a new word to fit the exigencies of the case. But here are the Senator's remarks; let them speak for themselves:

"The limit of damfoolism has not yet been reached. We are about to be plunged into a foolishly conflict with Spain, which will regret when this present trouble is reviewed in a sober, dispassionate manner.

"All the great thinkers, students and writers will condemn the United States when they have the facts before them. I deprecate war, but when it is a useless sacrifice of blood and treasure it is doubly damnable."

Of course the United States had a battleship blown up and 250 of its sailors and marines were murdered, but that was much better than if it had been a fleet and a thousand men had been killed. Cuba has been devastated and thousands of men, women and children have been starved, but that is much better than if the number ran up into the millions. What is the use of fighting so long as peace can be secured at any price?

It is sad to think that posterity will have such a poor opinion of the present generation, but when a patriotic nation decides that the course adopted is right and proper and Spain makes it absolutely impossible to avert hostilities we presume it will be a difficult matter to placate posterity and Mr. White. In fact it is by no means certain that a large majority of Americans are worrying much about either.

Spain's action in giving Minister Woodford his passports and breaking off diplomatic relations with the United States is by no means surprising. As a matter of fact it is entirely in keeping with Spain's unreasonable stand in its dealings with this country. The President of the United States went almost to the point of disgusting patriotic Americans in his efforts to preserve peace, but all concessions and arguments seem to have been unavailing. The President now realizes that the proper policy is to strike quickly and sharply and impress on Spain by armed force a lesson which it seems incapable of learning in any other manner. War is too terrible to be considered with any degree of complacency, but when injustice and oppression hold sway the best and simplest way to put them down is by the strong right arm of the government.

It is possible that the thirteenth Alphonso of Spain, in his thirteenth year, may experience what superstitious persons term a "black Friday."

Range set up in kitchen ready for use. No dirt! No dust! No coal to bring in! No ashes to take up and carry out! On it the finest lady in the land can prepare her meals and not become soiled. Much cheaper than coal or wood! And oh, what a comfort, husbands, to your wives who prepare your meals over steaming coal ranges during the long hot days of summer. If you wish to economize, buy a gas range; the saving over coal will pay for it in a few months. If your house is piped but has no fixtures we will make connection for use of the gas stove. This offer is limited to 100 stoves.
